

Ronald L. Jones, CPA
Executive Vice President

I came to work with Farmers Mutual Insurance Company in October of 1989.

Prior to coming to work for Farmers Mutual Insurance Company I was employed in public accounting. I was first employed by Tetrick, Bartlett & Co. Public Accountants from 1978—1982 and then changed accounting firms and was employed by Parks, Foster & Morris, P.L.L.C.-CPA's from 1982 –1989.

I obtained my BS degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Accounting and a minor in Computer Programming from Fairmont State College in 1977. In November of 1983 I passed the Certified Public Accountants examination..

I am a member of American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the West Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Our family attends the Gateway United Methodist Church in Fairmont. I serve as treasurer for the church.

My wife, Becky is a teacher at Lincoln Middle School, she teaches 8th grade science. Becky completed the requirements and became a National Board Certified Teacher in December 2007 and was recognized at a ceremony in Charleston, WV in February 2008. Becky won the 2009 Presidents Award for Science and Math teachers for the state of West Virginia. She attended a national award presentation in Washington D.C. and meet with President Obama. Becky was selected as a 2011 Arch Coal Teacher Achievement Award Recipient for the state of West Virginia.

We have been married since August of 1983 and are the parents of three children, Cory, Kylie and Erik (deceased).

Kylie graduated from the Pharmacy School at the University of Charleston in 2015. She is licensed pharmacist and works for White Hall Pharmacy.

Cory graduated magna cum laude from West Virginia University in 2013 with a degree in civil engineering. Cory is employed by Morgantown Utility Board as a civil engineer.
